

Dear Friends of Paterson Habitat,

As you recover from the preparation of your bountiful Thanksgiving dinner and are enjoying the scrumptious leftovers, let's not forget to mark your calendars for Sunday, November 28th, 2010 (12-5 pm) for our "A Time for Giving" event. As we open our doors exclusively for you. Be the first to have a peek at this season's treasures. It's time for every one of you to double check those lists to make sure you don't forget anyone who is important to you this holiday season. You will enjoy an afternoon of guilt free shopping knowing that you are making a difference in someone's life. No one could be more grateful then the families you will be able to help with your purchases. Mango Jam is generously donating 20% of the day's proceeds to Paterson Habitat for Humanity.

The event will have lots of wine flowing, delicious cheese and wonderful door prizes every ½ hour. Complimentary gift wrap too!

We hope that you will come and bring along a friend or 2 (or 3). Feel free to pass the invites along. Great gifts, great company and for an even greater cause....Lets help build hope with homes.....

We wish you a very happy, healthy holiday!! God bless you.

Best.....
